ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA
Nirvachan Sadan, Ashoka Road, New Delhi- 110 001.

No. 3/ER/2003/JS-II

Dated 27th March, 2003

ORDER

1. Whereas, the superintendence, direction and control, inter alia, of all elections to Parliament and to the Legislature of every State are vested in the Election Commission by Article 324 (1) of the Constitution of India.

2. And whereas, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India had, by its order dated 2nd May, 2002, in Civil Appeal No. 7178 of 2001- Union of India vs. Association for Democratic Reforms and another, held as follows:-

"(1) The jurisdiction of the Election Commission is wide enough to include all powers necessary for smooth conduct of elections and the word 'elections', is used in a wide sense to include the entire process of election which consists of several stages and embraces many steps.

(2) The limitation on plenary character of power is when the Parliament or State Legislature has made a valid law relating to or in connection with elections, the Commission is required to act in conformity with the said provisions. In case where law is silent, Art. 324 is a reservoir of power to act for the avowed purpose of having free and fair election: Constitution has taken care of leaving scope for exercise of residuary power by the Commission in its own right as a creature of the Constitution in the infinite variety of situations that may emerge from time to time in a large democracy as every contingency could not be foreseen or anticipated by the enacted laws or the rules. By issuing necessary directions Commission can fill the vacuum till there is legislation on the subject. In Kanhiya Lal Omar case (AIR 1986 SC 111), the court construed the expressions superintendence, direction and control in Art. 324 (1) and held that a direction may mean an order issued to a particular individual or precept which may have to follow and it may be a specific or a general order and such phase should be construed liberally empowering the Election Commission to issue such orders.

(3) The word 'elections' includes the entire process of election which consists of several stages and it embraces many steps, some of which have an important bearing on the process of choosing a candidate. Fair election contemplates disclosure by the candidate of his past including the assets held by him so as to give a proper choice to the candidate (sic) (elector) according to his thinking and opinion. As stated earlier, in Common Cause case [ (1996) 2 SCC 752], the court dealt with a contention that elections in the country are fought with the help of money power which is gathered from black sources and once elected to power, it becomes easy to collect tons of black money, which is used for retaining power and for re-election. If on affidavit a candidate is required to disclose the assets held by him at the time of election, voter can decide whether he could be re-elected even in case where he has collected tons of money.

(4) To maintain the purity of elections and in particular to bring transparency in the process of election, the Commission can ask the candidates about the expenditure incurred by the political parties and this transparency in the process of election would include transparency of a candidate who seeks election or re-election. In a democracy, the electoral process has a strategic role. The little man of this country would have basic elementary right to know full particulars of a candidate who is to represent him in Parliament where laws to bind his liberty and property may be enacted.

(5) The right to get information in democracy is recognised all throughout and it is natural right flowing from the concept of democracy. At this stage, we would refer to Art. 19 (1) and (2) of the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights which is as under-

1
Banmati Kisan

- (1) Everyone shall have the right to hold opinions without interference
- (2) Everyone shall have the right to freedom of expression, this right includes the right to seek, receive and impart information and ideas of all kinds, orally, in writing or in print, in the form of art, or through any other media
- (6) Cumulative reading of plethora of decisions of this court as referred to in the judgment of the field interest this Constitution
- (7) Under our Constitution, Art. 19 (1) (a) provides for freedom of speech or expression in case of election would include casting vote. For this purpose, information and date to be selected is must. Voter's (little man-citizen's) right to know a candidate's past of his candidate contesting election for MP or MLA is much for survival of democracy. The little man may think over before law breakers as law makers".

3. And whereas, the Hon'ble Supreme Court, by its aforesaid order directed as follows :—

"The Election Commission is directed to call for information on affidavit in exercise of its power under Art. 324 of the Constitution of India in relation to election to Parliament or a State Legislature as a necessary part of his/her candidature therein, information on the following aspects in relation to his/her candidature:

- (1) Whether the candidate is convicted/acquitted/discharged of any offence, and if so, whether he is punished with imprisonment or fine ?
- (2) Prior to six months of filing of nomination, whether the candidate is involved in any case, of any offence punishable with imprisonment for two years or more, which is framed or cognizance is taken by the court of law. If so, the details of the case.
- (3) The assets (immovable, movable, bank balances, etc.) of a candidate and that of dependants.
- (4) Liabilities, if any, particularly whether there are any overdue obligations to Government dues
- (5) The educational qualifications of the candidate".

4. And whereas, the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in its aforesaid order observed that 'the Election Commission has from time to time issued instructions in a situation where the field is unoccupied by the legislation' and had further directed the modalities to carry out and give effect to the aforesaid directions should be observed by the Election Commission as early as possible and in any case within two months of the date of the order.

5. And whereas, the Election Commission had, in pursuance of the Order dated 2nd May, 2002 of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and in exercise of its power under Article 324 of the Constitution, directed by an Order dated 28th June, 2002, as follows :—

- (1) Every candidate at the time of filing his nomination paper for election to the Council of States, House of the People, Legislative Assembly of a State or the Legislative Assembly of a State having such a Council, shall furnish full and complete information on the matters, specified by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and quoted in Para. 3 herein), in an affidavit, the format whereof is annexed to this order.

Banwanti K. Bhanu

(2) The said affidavit by each candidate shall be duly sworn before a Magistrate of the First Class or a Notary Public or a Commissioner of Oaths appointed by the High Court of the State concerned.

(3) Non-furnishing of the affidavit by any candidate shall be considered to be violation of the order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the nomination of the candidate concerned shall be liable to rejection by the Returning Officer at the time of scrutiny of nominations for such non-furnishing of the affidavit.

(4) Furnishing of any wrong or incomplete information or suppression of any material information by any candidate in or from the said affidavit may also result in the rejection of his nomination paper where such wrong or incomplete information or suppression of material information is considered by the Returning Officer to be a defect of substantial character, apart from inviting penal consequences under the Indian Penal Code for furnishing wrong information to a public servant or suppression of material facts before him:

Provided that only such information shall be considered to be wrong or incomplete or amounting to suppression of material information as is capable of easy verification by the returning officer by reference to documentary proof adduced before him in the summary inquiry conducted by him at the time of scrutiny of nominations under Section 36 (2) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, and only the information so verified shall be taken into account by him for further consideration of the question whether the same is a defect of substantial character.

(5) The information so furnished by each candidate in the aforesaid affidavit shall be disseminated by the respective Returning Officers by displaying a copy of the affidavit on the notice board of his office and also by making the copies thereof available freely and liberally to all other candidates and the representatives of the print and electronic media.

(6) If any rival candidate furnishes information to the contrary, by means of a duly sworn affidavit, then such affidavit of the rival candidate shall also be disseminated along with the affidavit of the candidate concerned in the manner directed above."

6. And whereas, the President of India promulgated the Representation of People (Amendment) Ordinance, 2002 (No. 4 of 2002) on the 24th August 2002 further to amend the Representation of the People Act, 1951 inserting Sections 33-A and 33-B and 125-A and amending Section 169 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951.

7. And whereas, by virtue of Section 33-B of the said Ordinance, the Order of the Election Commission dated the 28th June 2002, was rendered ineffective and the said Section 33-B read as under:—

"Section 33-B – Notwithstanding anything contained in any judgement, decree or order of any court or any direction, order or any other instruction issued by the Election Commission, no candidate shall be liable to disclose or furnish any such information, in respect of his election, which is not required to be disclosed or furnished under this Act or the rules made thereunder".

8. And whereas, the Government of India by notification dated 3rd September, 2002 amended the Conduct of the Election Rules, 1961 to give effect to the said Ordinance.

9. And whereas, the Association for Democratic Reforms, People's Union for Civil Liberties and Lok Satta, filed three separate writ petitions before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India challenging the constitutional validity of the Presidential Ordinance dated 24th August, 2002.

10. And whereas, the by Notification dated the 28th December, 2002, the Representation of the People Act, 1951 was amended by the Representation of the People (Third Amendment) Act, 2002 which substituted the aforesaid Ordinance dated 24th August, 2002.

11. And whereas, the said petitioners filed applications to treat the said writ petitions as challenging the constitutional validity of the Representation of the People (Third Amendment) Act, 2002.

Banomat Kisan

(4) The information so furnished by each candidate in the aforesaid affidavit shall be disseminated by the respective returning officers by displaying a copy of the affidavit on the notice board of his office and also by making the copies thereof available freely and liberally to all other candidates and the representatives of the print and electronic media.

(5) If any rival candidate furnishes information to the contrary, by means of a duly sworn affidavit, then such affidavit of the rival candidate shall also be disseminated along with the affidavit of the candidate concerned in the manner directed above.

17. For the removal of doubt, it is hereby clarified that the earlier direction contained in Para. 14 (4) of the earlier order dated 28th June, 2002, insofar as verification of assets and liabilities by means of summary enquiry and rejection of nomination paper on the ground of furnishing wrong information or suppressing material information is not enforceable in pursuance of the order dated 13th March, 2003 of the Apex Court. It is further clarified that apart from the affidavit in Annexure-1 hereto referred to in Para. 16 (1) above, the candidate shall have to comply with all the other requirements as spelt out in the Representation of the People Act, 1951, as amended by the Representation of the People (Third Amendment) Act, 2002, and the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, as amended by the Conduct of Elections (Amendment) Rules, 2002.

18. Insofar as elections to the Legislative Assembly and Legislative Council of the State of Jammu and Kashmir are concerned, the directions of the Election Commission contained in the preceding Para. 16 shall be deemed to have been issued under the provisions of Section 138 of the Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir which are akin to Article 324 (1) of the Constitution of India and vest the superintendence, direction and control of the conduct of all elections to either House of the Legislature of that State in the Election Commission.

19. All Returning Officers shall ensure that the copies of affidavit prescribed herein by the Commission shall be delivered to the candidates along with the forms of nomination papers as part of the nomination paper.
